too cold. It will not unfrequently cause vomiting when all other known means fail. It is, besides, the best remedy to assist the severe vomiting that is sometimes caused by the taking of polaons. Domestic animals always instinctively take large quantities of water when they have been poisoned.

Chenp Postage.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

I notice in the list of Counties in this State to which Postage rates at 5 cents. Tioga and Tompkins are included, with the words "if sent by Albany" after them. Can you, Sir, inform the public why that provise stands in that connection tor by what rule the rates of Postage are determined; I supposed, under the old law, that the shortest mail route was the guide for distances; and
